1. Purpose. This regulation establishes procedures for the selection of the COQ and the COY for FLW.

2. Referenced Forms.

- a. DA Form 1256, Incentive Award Nominations and Approval.
- b. DA Form 2028, Recommended Changes to Publications and Blank Forms.
- c. DA Form 4689, Commander's Award for Civilian Service.
- d. DA Form 5654, Achievement Medal for Civilian Service.
- e. Request for Personnel Action (RPA)

3. Explanation of Acronyms and Abbreviations. Acronyms and abbreviations used in this publication are explained in the glossary.

4. Policy.

a. The COQ and the COY program creates interest and stimulates a competitive spirit among DA civilians (appropriated fund [AF] and nonappropriated fund [NAF]) and provides suitable recognition and reward for individuals who possess a superior work record and job knowledge. The program is designed to reward extraordinary efforts and customer service and to inspire positive attitudes and enthusiasm that support the mission and Army values.

b. Each major command/activity is encouraged to nominate their most deserving civilian for the competition.

5. Responsibilities.

- a. The CPAC is responsible for:
 - (1) Administering the program.
 - (2) Preparing a DA Form 5654 for the selectee.
 - (3) Preparing the CG's letter of commendation for the selectee.
 - (4) Maintaining a record of each quarter's selection proceedings. The president of the board will sign the record indicating his/her approval. The CPAC will retain the original record of the proceedings for a period of one year from the date selection is made. This record should include the date the board is held, the names of the nominees, the total score of each nominee, and the person selected by the board as the COQ and the COY.
 - (5) Maintaining a list of primary and alternate voting members.

(6) Coordinating with the Directorate of Information Management (DOIM) to have selectee's picture to be taken for posting in designated areas.

b. The Public Affairs Office is responsible for providing adequate news coverage for the COQ and COY events.

c. The Directorate of Plans, Training, and Mobilization is responsible for conducting the presentation ceremonies.

6. Selection Board.

a. The COQ and COY selection board is comprised of the following organizations and individuals:

- (1) Maneuver Support Center, Chief of Staff.
- (2) Garrison Command, Deputy Garrison Commander.
- (3) U.S. Army Chemical School, Chief of Staff.
- (4) U.S. Army Engineer School, Chief of Staff.
- (5) U.S. Army Military Police School, Chief of Staff.
- (6) General Leonard Wood Army Hospital (GLWACH), Deputy Commander for Administration.
- (7) Capabilities Development and Integration Directorate (CDID), Technical Director.
- (8) Maneuver Support Center Directorate of Training (MDOT), Technical Director.

b. The president of the selection board will be the MANSCEN Chief of Staff or his designated representative. The president of the board will determine the winner in case of a tie.

c. At least six members of the board must vote for a selection to be made.

d. The selection board has the authority to approve the winner.

e. The commander or director of each organization listed above may appoint an alternate with full voting rights on the selection board. A listing of the primary or alternate board members will be provided to the CPAC.

f. The COQ will be selected the quarter prior to the quarter in which they are recognized.

g. At the request of the president, the selection board votes quarterly, but not later than the 30th of the last month of the quarter, to select the COQ for the following quarter. Candidates will not appear before the board. Those employees selected as the COQ during the previous fiscal year (October-September) will be considered for selection as the COY. The COY will be selected each September/October.

h. The selection board will select the COQ and the COY from the recommendations submitted in accordance with paragraph 7, below.

7. Procedures.

a. Recommendations of candidates for the COQ shall be submitted to the CPAC, by the 15th of the last month of each quarter. If the 15th falls on a weekend or holiday, the deadline is the next workday. (See Appendix A, Figure A-1 for an example nomination memorandum.) Each command/activity may submit only one candidate per quarter for the COQ and one per year for the COY.

b. The supervisor may request to review the nominee's official personnel folder prior to submitting the nomination through the CPAC.

c. Recommendations are submitted in narrative format by e-mail, not to exceed two pages, and should include the following information:

- (1) Name of candidate.
- (2) Position title, series, and grade.
- (3) Length of time in position.
- (4) Evaluation of overall performance.
- (5) Attitude, courtesy, and demonstrated professionalism.
- (6) Training, self-development/ performance of service.
- (7) Reasons for the recommendation.

d. The commander or director of the organization will endorse the recommendations.

e. The selection board's administrator will verify the nominees' eligibility with the Equal Employment Opportunity Office (EEO) and CPAC prior to their being considered for the COQ and COY.

f. Each selection board member will vote by e-mail. All nominees will be ranked in numerical ascending order (one being the best score). Ranking is based on the board members' review of the nominations submitted. The rankings from each board member are totaled, and the candidate with the lowest score is the winner. In the event of a tie, the president of the board will determine the winner.

g. Any individual who has been selected as the COQ cannot be renominated for 12 months following their selection.

8. Selection Criteria. The COQ and COY Award is intended to recognize meritorious personal effort, service, or other achievement within or outside the individual's assigned job responsibilities. The selection board shall consider the following factors when evaluating nominees for the COQ and the COY:

a. Attitude, courtesy, and job performance. Specific actions related to the mission of the organization and performance of duty that exceeds the normal expectations for someone in the position.

b. Training/self-development. The degree to which an individual spends personal time in work-related training or self-development and any personal circumstances that might have limited the employee's ability to seek self-development, during off-duty time. Performance outside the job that supports the organization or FLW's mission should also be considered.

c. Reason for the recommendation. What significant contribution has the individual made to the organization to include a concise statement as to why the individual is worthy of selection as the COQ.

9. Recognition.

a. The candidate selected by the selection board will be designated as the COQ for the following quarter. The board will also select the COY from the winners of the past four quarters. These awards will be announced in the "The GUIDON." A photograph of the COQ and COY will be displayed in the MANSCEN Headquarters in Hoge Hall.

b. The individual selected as the COQ will be awarded a DA Form 5654, the CG's coin, and a personal letter of commendation signed by the CG. The COY will be awarded a DA Form 4689, the CG's coin, and a personal letter of commendation signed by the CG.

c. The CG or his/her designee will present the award. The award ceremony will be held quarterly in conjunction with the ceremony that recognizes outstanding Soldiers.

d. The COQ will receive a $250 Special Act Award and a 16-hour Time-Off Award, and the COY will receive a $500 Special Act Award and a 24-hour Time-Off Award. The nominating organization will prepare a DA Form 1256, with a justification statement. Upon approval of DA Form 1256, the nominating organization will initiate an electronic RPA no later than three business days after being notified of the nominee's selection for the award.
