MEMORANDUM FOR Incoming Maneuver Support Center of Excellence Noncommissioned Officer Academy, Engineer Advanced Leader Course

SUBJECT: Welcome from the Course Chief

1. Congratulations on behalf of the Maneuver Support Center of Excellence NCO Academy (NCOA), it is my pleasure to welcome you to Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri for attendance to Engineer Advanced Leader Course (ALC).
2. Your selection to attend this course by the Department of the Army is a testimony of your outstanding performance and your potential to assume duties of greater responsibility. It will be leaders like you that will transform the Army in the 21st Century. I challenge you to continue to do great things for the Army as well as for the Corps of Engineers and you will be rewarded.
3. The mission of the Maneuver Support Center of Excellence NCO Academy Engineer ALC is to train selected NCOs and enhance combat-ready and values-based leaders in accordance with the United States Army Sergeant's Major Academy (USASMA) and the Engineer ALC proponent programs of instruction for Career Management Field (CMF) 12.
4. Engineer ALC will provide, once you have signed into the Academy, an opportunity to perform the duties and execute the responsibilities of a Senior Noncommissioned Officer. You will receive institutional training, examinations and evaluations on the theory and principles of battle focus technical engineer training as well as war fighting skills required to lead a Squad size element in any combat or contemporary environment.
5. I am privileged to welcome you to attend Engineer ALC to gather increased knowledge and shared experiences to carry on the ever-demanding responsibility of leading Soldiers in a combat or contemporary environment. I wish you all who sign into the course the best of luck to excellence. "Victory Through Skill."

"ESSAYONS!"
