MEMORANDUM FOR Incoming Engineer / Ordnance Advanced Leader Course (ALC)

SUBJECT: Welcome Letter

1. On behalf of the Commandant of the Maneuver Support Center of Excellence Noncommissioned Officer Academy (MNCOA), congratulations on your selection to attend the Engineer or Ordnance Advanced Leader Course at the largest Noncommissioned Officer Academy in the United States Army.
2. Your selection to attend this course by the Department of the Army is a testimony of your outstanding performance and potential to assume positions of greater responsibility. The professional military education course is designed to share your operational experience with your peers daily through small group instruction and interaction.
3. The Army Learning Model (ALM) will be challenging, exciting, and meaningful. The course will leverage technology to provide credible, rigorous, and relevant training. Soldiers must strive to be a continual learner, which requires effective time management. The objective of this course is to build and maintain competent, confident and committed leaders. The course will promote critical thinking, adaptability, and problem solving that will better prepare and equip you to train Soldiers of our Regiment.
4. The Small Group and Senior Instructors are committed to providing a climate that encourages excellence in all endeavors. It is imperative that you thoroughly read the MNCOA Student Guide and the Individual Student Assessment Plan (ISAP) available on the Academy Web site for more information prior to your arrival. Use these resources to effectively plan your in processing and course attendance.
5. The point of contact for this memorandum is the SSGL at 573-563-7441 or 573-563-7437.
